

Volunteer Role Profile

Volunteer Role

Education & Advocacy Volunteer

Volunteer Manager

Volunteer & Events Officer

Where you will be based

Community

Why we want you

You're passionate about sharing knowledge and opening minds. Whether you're a natural speaker or want to build your confidence, we need your voice to help others understand and care about marine conservation.

What you will be doing

- Deliver or support presentations to schools or groups (in-person or virtual)
- Help develop or adapt educational resources
- Represent the Foundation at education or sustainability forums
- Collaborate with youth/environmental networks

The skills you need

- Confident public speaker or educator
- Experience working with youth or in learning environments
- Able to tailor messages to different age groups
- Passionate about marine conservation and justice

What's in it for you

- Develop your public speaking and facilitation skills
- Share your passion for marine life with diverse audiences
- Help inform and inspire the next generation of ocean defenders
- Gain experience in education, outreach, and advocacy
- Make a real difference through knowledge-sharing

Disclaimer

Proactive Note: All volunteers are encouraged to be proactive in their role and to seek opportunities to promote marine conservation and the Foundation's campaigns within their local communities and networks.